VOLUME CVIII.--NO. 53. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 2, 1907. PRICE 2 CENTS.

OPEN PUBLICITY THE BEST GUARANTY OF MERIT.

When the maker of a medicine, sold through druggists for family use, takes his patients fully into his confidence by frankly and fearlessly publishing broadcast as well as on its bottle wrappers, a full list of all its ingredients in plain English, this action on his part is the best possible evidence that he is not afraid to have the search light of investigation turned full upon his formula and that it will bear the fullest scrutiny and the most thorough investigation. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of the weaknesses, periodical pains and functional derangements of the organs distinctly feminine, is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for woman's special use, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence by such open and honest publicity.

A glance at the published ingredients on each bottle wrapper, will show that it is made wholly from native, American, medicinal roots, that it contains no poisonous or habit-forming drugs, no narcotics and no alcohol—pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol, both for extracting and preserving the active medicinal properties found in the roots of the American forest plants employed. It is the only medicine for women's peculiar diseases, sold by druggists, that does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, which is in the long run so harmful to woman's delicate, nervous system. Now, glycerine is perfectly harmless, and serves a valuable purpose by possessing intrinsic value all its own, and besides it enhances the curative effect of the other ingredients entering into the "Favorite Prescription."

Some of the wisest medical writers and teachers endorse these views and praise all the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is composed—recommending them for the cure of the very same diseases for which this world-famed medicine is advised. No other medicine for women has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. If interested, send name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his little book of extracts from the works of eminent medical writers and teachers, endorsing the several ingredients and telling just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of. It's free for the asking.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Brights or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES.

"Let the place seek the man
And not the man the place."

In the earlier times of our republic, before the rapacious greed for gain at all costs had turned the world upside down and set so many people crazy for the possession of houses, lands and mines, and the acquirement of fabulous fortunes; before rascality and graft had permeated every department of our national, State and municipal governments, and before fraud and methods of trickery had wrought so general an adulteration of all our food products and shoddyized so many of our manufactured articles, merit and qualification were esteemed the surest as well as the most praiseworthy claims for public favor. In politics an aspirant for office was expected to have not only that most necessary qualification, a good moral character, to begin with, but also to be fitted by education, experience and judgment to discharge the duties of the trust acceptably to his constituents.

Of late years, these cardinal characteristics seem to be lamentably overlooked in the selection of candidates for public positions. Whoever can get into the ring first, and secure the first boom of the cliques and wire managers makes his calling and election sure, and often as not, sordid influences are brought to bear in determining the choice of the one who is to win the prize, and once chosen at the primaries the end becomes assured. Good or bad, the candidate is elected and the dear people who pay the taxes and have the welfare of the commonwealth at heart acquiesce. There is no appeal.

In the good old times, when the people needed a man to serve them in an official capacity, whether for the legislature or Congress, they did not leave the choice of that man, indirectly, to pullers and barroom politicians but attended to the important matter directly themselves. They were interested in the way the public funds were used and applied, so they sought out competent, trustworthy men to serve them and gave them the offices. They choose no salary grabbers nor grafters. Nowadays, the man who makes up his mind that he is the fit person for official trust, proceeds to fix up his slate with the help of the boomers, accordingly. He blows his own trumpet and proclaims his capabilities, and so, in the majority of instances, the responsible places of the body politic are fitted in a haphazard way to the detriment of the public safety and good.

The foregoing considerations have been induced by noticing the unseemly is not indecent haste of the many aspirants through our Congressional district to fill the place made vacant by the death of our late representative in Congress the Hon. John F. Rixey.

Hardly was the vacancy announced through the press than at least a dozen individuals from every point of the compass and in the different counties of the district were suddenly infatuated with the belief that they were men of destiny, that their fortunate stars were already gleaming on the horizon; visions came to them of the time when they could show their credentials in the halls of the national Capitol and sit down proudly in the "seats of the mighty." Naturally every one of these aspirants was a lawyer, as if Congress was not already filled to repletion with the profession, and the people weary with their endless schemes to burden the honest working tax payers with the exactions of unnecessary laws. Not a farmer, not a tradesman, not a mechanic booms up in the race of these ambitious personages. No, they are all busily following their particular pursuits for the general good, and more than this, they have no caucus nor ring at their bidding to start them and herald their claims. And this brings us to the consideration of the lamentable fact that in all our legislative bodies the will and influence of the lawyer has come to be supreme, while the farmer, whose calling antedates every other honorable pursuit in the history of mankind and who stands at the gates whence issue all the supplies to feed all the hungry of the world, is almost entirely ignored as a representative individual. His claims are overridden and his interests disregarded.

In the opinion of the writer, irresponsible caucuses and rings such as have of late years been managing our political machinery, have had their sway sufficiently long. They do not represent the popular sentiment, are not interested in the general good, and should not be countenanced.

The Eighth congressional district with its large area of territory, its varied natural resources, its fine agricultural possibilities, its growing towns and cities and its educational progress is surely worthy of the best representative in our national congress that can be found among its citizens. Not a figurehead merely, not a haphazard man, but a man of education, of experience, of discriminating judgment and particularly a man of honesty and integrity, one who will look carefully to the interests of our Virginia people in congress and by votes and personal influence there oppose all schemes of fraud and all extravagant expenditures of the people's earnings. Why not elect such a man? In the democratic party of the district there is no lack of worthy men to fill all the requirements. Let us get back to the good old time when the "place sought the man and not the man the place."

A COMMITTEE from the Merchants' Association of New York, consisting of J. Pierpont Morgan, John Y. Cuyler, Dr. Albert Vanderveer and Edward Hatch, jr., has filed charges against Dr. Eugene N. Porter, New York State Commissioner of Health, with Governor Hughes. In these charges the committee states that the commissioner has failed to do his duty in preventing the ice trust from cutting ice in the Hudson, which is filled with typhoid and other germs. Concerning the findings of the chemists employed by the committee it says: "Most of the ice, either at the top or bottom of the cake, showed intestinal germs as the result of chemical and bacteriological examinations. Especially bad is the ice cut on the fields between Albany and Troy, and for five miles south of Albany. In both instances it is practically solidified sewage. Near Albany and elsewhere on the river ice is cut close to the large sewer outlets. Much of the ice now being stored for domestic consumption is practically unfit for such purpose, and, if cut at all, should be used only for cold storage or cooling in chemical works, where there is absolutely no possibility of contact with food, and violations of these limitations should be punished in an exemplary manner. This is a pleasant contemplation to those living in the South who are supplied with northern ice.

DECLARING that he would rather see the bill fail than that additional restrictions should be placed upon the beef packers, Representative Wadsworth, of New York, on Thursday night persuaded the conferees upon the agricultural appropriation bill to strike from the measure the Senate provision for the date of inspection upon all meat labels. Because of Wadsworth's threats to beat the bill the Senate conferees yielded, and an agreement was reached. It is understood, however, that the Senate conferees were not particularly desirous of retaining the provision in question, believing, like Mr. Wadsworth, that the beef trust should not be further restrained. The provision was urged by the President and was presented to the Senate by Senator Beveridge. But the beef trust won. If the meats are sound when canned and are not treated with chemicals, why should any honest packer object to them being properly labeled?

THE WAY things looks today, the strenuous efforts put forth by the republican leaders in the House yesterday on behalf of the ship subsidy bill, whereby they succeeded in passing the measure after it had once been defeated, will after all prove of no avail. The bill now goes back to the Senate. There is enough opposition in that body to put it on the shelf. Under the liberal rules in the upper branch of Congress there will be ample opportunity to talk the measure to death between now and Monday noon when the 2nd session of the 59th Congress expires and this it is hoped will be done. Even as finally passed by the House yesterday, the friends of the bill could scarcely recognize it. There were left in it provisions for only four lines, two from the Atlantic coast to South America, one from the Gulf to South America and one from the Pacific coast to South America.

From Washington.

Washington, March 2.

Democratic senators seem to be determined to prevent the passage of the ship subsidy bill which by a close vote passed the House last evening. Senator Carmack is taking a leading part in this movement. He said today he would oppose the adoption of the bill and that he believed he had considerable support. If necessary, he said, he would make a long speech against it. It is evidently the intention of the democrats to talk on the bill long enough to prevent a vote upon it.

The conferees of Senate and House are in a deadlock over the question whether or not the existing eighteen pension agencies throughout the country should be continued or abolished. The House voted them out of the pension appropriation bill. The Senate restored them. That is now the only point of difference between the two houses. After a general debate in advocacy of retaining the agencies the Senate today by a vote of 62 to 1 insisted upon the adoption of Senate amendment, and sent the report back to another conference.

President Roosevelt today nominated Major W. Goethals, recently appointed Chief Engineer of the Panama Canal, to be a Lieut. Col. of Engineers.

The President today appointed two brigadier generals on the active list of the army and directed that their nominations be sent to the Senate for confirmation. Col. Alfred C. Markeley, commanding the 12th Infantry, is made a brigadier general to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Brigadier General S. P. Jocelyn. Col. Charles B. Hall, commanding the 18th Infantry is made a brigadier general from April 11th 1907, when Brigadier General Duggan will be retired. Neither of the two new brigadier generals is a graduate of West Point.

Senator Frye in reporting to the Senate today a bill for the construction of a certain dam said: "If present consideration be given to this matter. I'll not ask for the passage of another dam bill this session."

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, March 2.

SENATE.

The Senate today by 62 to 1 ordered the conferees on the pension appropriation bill to insist upon the provision continuing eighteen pension agencies.

Mr. Tillman presented a resolution in the Senate calling upon the President for all papers and information in his possession relative to the recently proposed construction of the Panama canal by contract.

Charges of canal corruption were made by Mr. Tillman.

In advocacy of its immediate adoption Tillman had read a newspaper interview in which Oliver admitted he was a "chump" and charged that he had been "buncoed" by the administration.

Mr. Culberson said he understood that the whole trouble was because no rock bottom could be found for the purposed dam at Gatun and Mr. Hopkins called attention to the official report denying that charge.

Mr. Carmack paid a high tribute to Mr. Oliver. He said he considered his treatment by the President as hard and unjust and he hoped the facts might become known.

Objection of Hopkins to immediate consideration the resolution went over.

Mr. Carmack presented a stack of petitions from labor organizations for a congressional investigation of the alleged kidnapping of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, of the Western Federation of Miners, from Colorado to Idaho.

The petitions were presented to Senator Carmack by Eugene Debs, who is in the city.

A filibuster was begun in the Senate this afternoon against consideration of the ship subsidy bill.

It is understood that the democratic senators have decided to kill the bill.

Senator Blackburn, served notice on the republicans that they might just as well withdraw the subsidy bill and occupy the time with the consideration of bills that could pass.

The notification was accepted by the republicans as definitely deciding the fate of the measure.

HOUSE.

The House began the longest legislative day of the session. It will extend over tomorrow, and possibly Monday morning until 11 o'clock. At that time the House will meet, in pursuance to the rule, on a new legislative day.

The first thing considered was the conference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill. This was adopted but leaves still in disagreement the appropriation for a department building in Washington, vast areas of land for public parks in Washington, the woman and child labor investigation, fuel tests by the Geological Survey, the transportation of silver dollars and others. The House began a discussion of what further action should be taken on these amendments.

Mr. Keifer proposed that the House recede from its opposition to the Senate amendment for the transportation of silver dollars.

Mr. Hill declared that the money so expended by the goyernment of shipping silver coin to banks was a monumental graft for the banks and express companies.

Mr. Kiefer's motion was lost.

The House voted again to stand pat on its proposition that the woman and child labor investigation be done by the census bureau instead of by the bureau of labor as the Senate desires.

By a vote of 92 to 40, the House voted to recede from its disagreement on the Senate amendment appropriating $250,000 for fuel tests by the Geological Survey.

Still After Bailey.

Representative W. A. Cooke, who filed the charges against Senator Bailey and prosecuted them before the investigating committee, yesterday introduced a bill in the Texas House to provide that every member of the United State Senate and the lower house of Congress from Texas shall, on or before January 1 of each year, file with the secretary of state of Texas comprehensive and itemized statements of each and every source of income, direct or indirect, received by him from every source during the previous year.

This statement shall contain items of all loans negotiated, together with a statement of dates, amounts, security, maturity and payee and by whom negotiated, and of all gifts, donations or things of value received or promised during the year; also a detailed account of all transactions of every nature by which money or things of value have been won or lost, together with a list of all parties with whom and for whose account such transactions were made.

If any members of Congress are attorneys-at-law they shall set out in their statement a complete list of their actual and prospective professional employes during the succeeding year.

This statement must be sworn to, and in case of failure to comply with the provisions of the law a penalty of $500 to $1,000 and forfeiture of office is provided.

The Ship Subsidy Bill.

After defeating the ship subsidy bill yesterday afternoon by a majority of 5 votes, the House, after an exciting discussion, reconsidered its vote and adopted the bill by a majority of 12 votes.

The official vote by which the bill was first defeated as was stated in the Gazette was 161 to 154, an apparent majority of 7, but, as a matter of fact, Mr. Littauer, of New York, who has been in charge of the measure, when he saw that the bill was doomed, changed his vote from "aye" in favor of the bill to "no" against it, in order to avail himself of his parliamentary right to move to reconsider the vote. Hence, the actual strength of the friends of the bill was 155 votes and the strength of the opponents was 160, so that the bill was defeated really by a majority of 5 votes.

The House ship subsidy bill provides subsidies for four steamer lines, all to South America.

Three of the lines are from the Atlantic coast and the fourth from the Pacific coast.

The monthly statement of the public debt issued yesterday shows that at the close of business February 28, 1907, het debt less cash in the Treasury, amounted to $920,644,853, which is a decrease of $6,797,354, as compared with February 1.

News of the Day.

Ex-Mayor William T. Malster, of Baltimore, died this morning after a long illness.

A bill in equity to secure an accounting of the financial affairs of Mrs. Mary Baker Glover Eddy, head of the Christian Science Church, was filed yesterday in the New Hampshire courts by Mrs. Eddy's son, George W. Glover, of Deadwood, S. D., and his daughter, Mrs. Mary Baker Glover, and George W. Baker, a nephew of Mrs. Eddy.

Initial steps for the preservation of the old Francis S. Key mansion, in Georgetown, where the author of "The Star-Spangled Banner" lived at one time, were taken at a meeting Thursday evening at the University Club, when officers and trustees of the Francis Scott Key Memorial Association were elected and plans outlined for purchasing the property.

Ninety per cent, of the men employed in the Harrisburg yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, it is said, have voted for a strike. More than 9,000 of the 9,600 trainmen employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company on its lines east of Pittsburg and Erie have voted to strike because the company has declined to increase their wages and shorten their hours. An announcement to this effect was made lastnight. This will, it is thought, have no effect on the railroad's attitude. The Pennsylvania Railroad has issued a circular stating it cannot grant any increase of wages to trainmen in excess of the 10 per cent. advance last December.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Howell, mother of Mrs. C. P. Wylie, died yesterday from pneumonia in Warrenton.

Ex-Congressman George D. Wise, of the Third district, is extremely ill at his home in Richmond, and his recovery is said to be doubtful.

Mr. Quinton L. Hutchison and Miss Clementina M. Amedon, both of Prince William county, were married Wednesday at the home of the bride at Dumfries.

James A. Forster, a leading Clarke county farmer, died at his home, near Berryville, yesterday, after a brief illness of pneumonia, aged 60 years. Four daughters survive him.

The Virginia Corporation Commission has refused to have anything to do with the case of the two water companies fighting to obtain control of the plant to supply Hampton with water.

Col. William H. Stewart, grand commander of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia, has issued an order calling for a meeting of the camp on October 16, 17 and 18. October 18 has been designated as Confederate Day at the Jamestown Exposition.

CONGRESSIONAL.

In the Senate yesterday the bill amending the denatured alcohol law, so as to permit the manufacture of that product by farmers and others, was passed despite the opposition of Mr. Aldrich

The final report of the conferees on the naval bill was agreed to and partial reports on the agricultural, sundry civil and postoffice bills.

The House passed the general deficiency bill and on a point of order struck out the item reducing Congressmen's mileage from 20 cents to 8 cents.

The House finally passed the Littauer substitute for the Gallinger ship subsidy bill passd by the Senate. This result was achieved after six roll calls, on the first of which the opponents of the bill prevailed.

The bill was adopted after a long and exciting discussion by a majority of 12 votes.

Victory is accredited to splendid organization of republicans and disorganization of democrats.

The annual subsidy for three of the four lines is to be $300,000 for a monthly mail service or $600,000 for a fortnightly service.

The fourth line, known as the Argentine line, is to have an annual subsidy of $400,000 for a monthly service or $800,000 for a fortnightly service.

No American cities are named as the ports from which any of the lines are to start.

The measure will now go to a conference committee of both houses of Congress.

"The ship subsidy bill," said a prominent western democratic Senator late yesterday, "will never become a law at the present session of Congress.

"You can state in the most positive and emphatic terms that no report that the conferees may make on the bill will be accepted by the Senate."

Jamestown Postage Stamps.

Postmaster General Cortelyou yesterday approved the design for a one-cent postage stamp which is to be of the series of stamps commemorative of the Jamestown Exposition. The denomination of the stamps will be one cent and two cent. The design for the latter was approved by the Postmaster General several days ago. The stamps will be rectangular in form, the one cent being green in color, and the two cent carmine. The one-cent stamp will bear a vignette of Capt. John Smith and the dates of his birth and death, 1580 and 1631. In the upper left-hand corner will be a profile of Pocahontas, and in the upper right-hand corner a profile of Powhattan. The two-cent stamp will bear a fine engraving of the landing of the first settlers at Jamestown. The stamps are being made at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, and will be placed on sale at postoffices throughout the United States on April 26, the day of the opening of the Jamestown Exposition.

Mrs. Wm. W. Astor Ill.

New York, March 2.—It is reported that Mrs. Wm. Astor, for years the leading figure in New York's Four Hundred, is near death, today. It is learned that her favorite grand daughter, Miss Van Alen, has been hastily summoned to her bedside and has cancealed all her London engagements and is hastening to New York. While it is known that Mrs. Astor has been in failing health for a long time, no confirmation of the fact that her condition has taken a change for the worse, could be obtained at her home today.

THE STROTHERS TRIAL.

When the Gazette's report of the Strothers trial in Culpeper closed yesterday Judge Harrison had ruled that the admission of expert testimony as to the condition of the minds of the defendants at the time of the homicide was allowable.

He decided that he would allow the defense to ask the question, providing several amendments were made to it.

An adjournment was then taken until 2 o'clock, when the amendments were taken up and occasional further debate resulted between opposing counsel. Mr. Keith insisted that his amendment, which referred to the plan to prevent Bywaters from escaping, should be inserted in the question. This, of course, resulted in many tilts between counsel.

"There is no doubt about this plea being talked over," remarked Mr. Keith in behalf of his amendment, "by the Strother boys just before the killing, and it has been testified by the defendants themselves."

Other minor amendments were discussed at length, chief of which was the last line of the question. Originally the defense had it so that it practically asked the witness to state the responsibility of the Strother boys.

Captain Woods claimed that under this the witness might determine the case without any jury and asked that it be changed

Judge Harrison finally suggested that the witness merely be asked to characterize the homicide by the Strother boys.

It is probable that the attorneys for the commonwealth will introduce a hypothetical question to uphold the State's side of the case, and there is a strong likelihood that a prolonged legal battle will be in order today.

Because of the delay at both sessions of the court by the argument over the hypothetical question introduced by the defense the case will be prolonged until Monday, and possibly longer. Counsel for the defense say that they have several witnesses yet to examine, and as the commonwealth has other witnesses which are yet to testify, it is doubtful whether all the evidence can be heard today.

Dr. Clark, the alienist, will go on the stand today, and E. L. Gaines, brother-in-law of the Strother boys, will also be called.

In speaking of the turn of affairs yesterday evening, Mr. Walton Moore, of the defense, declared the idea of using alienists was not a new one, but that he and his colleagues, Messrs. Lee and Jeffries, had practically decided upon introducing such evidence at the opening of the case.

News was received stating that the mother of Juror Charles O. Keller of Woodstock, who is critically ill at the home of her son, was somewhat better and that there would be no occasion of his leaving Culpeper.

During the recess of court yesterday Botts Strother, cousin of the defendants, who resides at Welch, W. Va., was married to Miss Helen Johnson, of Culpeper. Rev. Mr. Ware, of the Culpeper Protestant Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony. The young Benedict came to Culpeper Monday to be present at the trial, and was stopping with members of the Strother family.

Culpeper, Va., March 2.—When Dr. Clark, the alienist, resumed the stand today Attorney Moore read the hypothetical question, asked yesterday, amended so as to contain an accurate, full and impartial recital of all the established facts in the case.

"Having heard these facts, Doctor, how would you characterize the mental condition of the brothers at the time of the homicide?" asked Mr. Moore.

"I would characterize it as an irresistible impluse. Impulsive insanity, it is called," was the reply.

"Is mental derangement due to any one cause?"

"The causes are numerous."

"What is the principal cause of derangement?"

"Stress, strain on the mind."

"Can there be a derangement without a previous disease?"

"In my opinion there can be."

The expert was then turned over to Capt. Micajah Woods for cross-examination. Dr. Clark said he thought that Bywaters' attempt to get out of the house after all the brothers had endured overwhelmed them and they acted on the impulse. He did not believe that a human mind could have evolved the plan to act one way or another in the short time elapsing between the time Bywaters sprang to his feet until he was shot to death.

"Now, take a hungry man with a pistol in his hand said Captain Woods. He goes into a bakery, points the pistol at the baker and says "I want bread. I'll kill you if you don't give it to me." The baker refuses. The hungry man shoots and kills him. Would you say that that man was suffering from impulsive insanity?"

"I should say, he was not fully responsible," replied the doctor.

"When the man does a violent act as the result of fury or temper do you say he should be considered impulsively insane?"

"There is a difference between impulsive insanity and anger."

"When a man wanting a thing done, finds that the thing has not been done and his emotions rise up like a storm and he does a violent act, is that impulsive insanity?"

"If the emotions were strong enough to overpower his judgment I should say he was not responsible."

During the cross questioning, the State's Attorney was frequently interrupted by questions by the defense.

"You are paid by the government and supposed to be at the hospital all the time?", questioned Attorney Keith.

"Yes."

"You are getting a compensation for testifying her.?".

"Yes."

"Any amount agreed upon?"

"No."

Mr. Moore rallied to the defense of the expert showing that Dr. Clark and counsel for the defense were warm personal friends, that the question of money was not mentioned at the time.

Dr. Clark was excused, and Dr. W. F. Drewry, of Petersburg, was called on behalf of the state.

Attorney Jeffries announced that the defense was closed, except for the calling of a witness for minor testimony on Monday.

Mr. Keith agreed to this.

Judge Harrison if the State would close its rebuttal testimony today, Mr. Keith replied in the negative.

A recess was taken.

Trouble Among Christian Scientists.

Concord, N. H., March 2.—A bomb exploded in the parlors of the home of Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder and head of the Christian Science cult, would not have created more of a furor than the filing of the suit late yesterday evening in the Superior Court here to compel an accounting of the affairs of Mrs. Eddy, the plaintiffs in the action being George W. Glover, the son and only child of Mrs. Eddy, his daughter, Mary Baker Glover, and George W. Baker, a nephew of Mrs. Eddy. What apparently added most of the consternation of Mrs. Eddy's cabinet is the fact that the aged woman herself is made the plaintiff in the suit, which is brought by the others as her "next friends." Every action of the plaintiff shows that it is their purpose to steer clear of an attack on Mrs Eddy or Christian Science. On the contrary the head of the cult is placed on a high plane, and the entire course of events is so shaped as to make it clear that the attack which promises to develop into one of the most sensational pieces of litigations in the history of the country, is aimed not at Mrs. Eddy, but at the men surrounding her, who have, according to the allegations of the plaintiffs, taken advantage of her extreme age and infirmities, to secure control of the vast wealth she is known to possess.

The storm which broke over Pleasant View yesterday is directly traceable to the expose of a few months back, when it was practically proven that a substitute dressed and made up to represent Mrs. Eddy was driven for daily carriage rides through the streets of Concord with a view of concealing from the public the real decline in which the head of the cult has sunken. A feature revealed today and which promises to have an important bearing when the case comes to a hearing revolves about sixty old letters written by Mrs. Eddy to her son several years ago. It is said these letters will prove her love for her son, and her intention to make him the beneficiary under her will, intentions which were later, according to his belief, overruled by the men who seem to sway Mrs. Eddy.

Startling Developments Expected

New York, March 2.—District Attorney Jerome is reported to have received a letter today from Craig Wadsworth, second secretary of the American embassy at London, offering information which is expected to produce one of the greatest sensations of the Thaw trial. The letter was expected by Jerome and arrived on the Teutonic which docked last evening. Mr. Wadsworth, who knew the Thaw party during the now famous European trip of 1903, volunteers information of a startling nature.

Word received here from friends of Wadsworth in London says the embassy secretary has offered to make a deposition of the facts in his knowledge for use by Jerome.

Mr. Wadsworth is said to have in his possession numerous letters from Thaw clearly indicating the insanity of the writer and of such a nature as to be invaluable in clearing up hitherto mysterious facts in the case.

The Wadsworth letters are said to throw an entirely new light on the tragedy, Wadworth asserting that Thaw was completely under the influence of Evelyn. This might hint at a motive for the killing of White.

The Wadsworth letters are regarded as so valuable that it is predicted that Jerome may ask that attorneys be sent to London to take Wadworth's deposition.

Evelyn Thaw and Mrs. William Thaw were both callers on Thaw in the Tombs today. Thaw was feeling somewhat depressed today. The testimony of the insanity experts is galling to the defendant. He dreads the mad house as the worst fate that can befall him. Thaw's lawyers have already taken steps to defeat any effort by the district attorney to have a lunacy commission appointed.

A conference of the defense's lawyers was held last night when plans to checkmate Jerome, if he makes such a move, were carefully outlined.

Howard Nesbit, brother of Evelyn Thaw in a statement made today comes to the defense of his sister. He also takes occasion to defend the memory of Stanford White as the architect was known to him.

He upholds his mother and says an opportunity will be given to prove the world that she had been a good and kind mother to Evelyn and knew nothing of the girl's alleged mistreatment at White's hands.

American Campaign Methods.

London, March 2.—Today's election of members of the London county council closes a campaign which has been fought ont on issues hitherto almost exclusively American property. To a great extent American campaign methods have prevailed.

For the first time in English history an election is being conducted on the "trust' issues. The extension of municipal ownership of public utilities is the contention. During the past term with the progressives in control the street car service and Thames steamers have been put under municipal control. Now the progressives wish to extend this system of operation to other utilities.

Moderates of all degrees have united against them on the issue, and the campaign has been the most bitter fought in years.

Cartoons of the American order, showing the "trusts" as fat, overfed, individuals have been the dominating feature of the campaign.

Body Missing.

Reading, Pa., March 2.—In opening the grave of Cyrus Becker in the Bern Church cemetery, near here, several days ago, it was found that the body and the casket had been removed. It is believed that it was the work of ghouls. Mr. Becker committed suicide by hanging in August, 1905, when charges were brought against him for watering his milk. He was a well to do farmer.

Head-on Collision.

Waterbury, Conn., March 2.—Four men are dead, a score injured and Governor Rollin S. Woodruff, of Connecticut, had a narrow escape from death in a head-on collision between New York, New Haven, and Hartford Railroad trains on the Naugatuck division near here early today. The Governor was severely shaken up and slightly bruised, but aside from this escaped serious injury. Charles E. Julin, his private secretary, was seriously injured, being crushed about the body and legs and badly cut about the face. The dead men were the crews of the colliding engines.

The wrecked trains were a regular passenger and a special consisting of an engine and one passenger coach containing 150 members of the New Haven Grange, a company of the State militia, returning to New Haven from a banquet given them here last night by Company A. The cause of the accident has not been determined, but is believed to have been due to mistaken signals. The engineers saw that a crash was inevitable, but each stayed at his post and both died like heroes trying to reverse their engines. The ice-covered rails made this impossible, and following the crash which fairly welded the two engines, one of the boilers exploded. All of the passengers in the regular train were severely shaken up, but none was fatally injured.

New Haven, Conn., March 2.—The New Haven Railroad, in a statement, says the extra train had orders to meet the regular train at the Hillsiding, but failed to do so, and that responsibility for the accident seems to lie with the conductor and engineer of the extra train.

Harriman Going South.

Washington, D. C., March 2.—E. H. Harriman is here on his way south to recuperate. In an interview given out today he seeks to justify his course with the Chicago & Alton. "The President," he says, "I believe is right in what he is trying to do. But he is not going about it in the right way, because of his lack of business knowledge or training. It is not so much what you do, but how and when you do it. The Interstate Commerce Commission is hardly fair in its proceedings. The members would produce better results if they would try to cooperate with the business interests of the country instead of antagonizing them, but fever seems of on now There is little incentive for a man to be successful, but I am sure that the old American spirit of 'fair play' will prevail in the end. That is more to the purpose than a 'square deal.' We may have a 'square deal;' but unfare play. There seems to be a tendency among all unsuccessful people to assail those who are successful." Mr. Harriman then said that nothing new was brought out in the investigation in New York.

Mob Violence Feared.

Bloomington, Ill., March 2.—Mob violence, dynamite and the rope are feared in Bloomington. Twenty armed men are inside the jail to resist a threatened attack by men bent on lynching Thomas Baldwin, who murdered Cora Eiseman, her mother, Charles Kennedy and his wife, believing they were instrumental in the issuance of a warrant for an attack on Cora. There is persistent talk that Colfax and Arrowsmith, farmers, are planning such an attack.

The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of wilful murder against Baldwin last night. State's Attorney Bach will call a special grand jury to act on the case Monday.

Baldwin, who is 68 years old, is almost prostrated with terror.

Two-cent Rate.

Traffic Manager R. B. Cooke, of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railway, yesterday admitted to the State Corporation Commission in Richmond that, despite the fact that the amount of stock has been increased 25 per cent., it was paying 10 per cent. dividend annually, and made twice as much per mile on passenger traffic as any road in the country. He had to admit that he did not think a flat two-cent rate would bankrupt the road.

"Now is the time for it," he said, "and the road can easily stand the reduction. We have been very fortunate Our road is level and our expenses are low. I think the rate should be reduced."

At the conclusion of the morning's examination the whole two-cent proceeding was closed. No other roads will appear, though the Baltimore and Ohio and the Norfolk and Southern will send papers to supplement their answers already filed.

Four-cent Fare Killed.

The House bill which passed the Senate Thursday authorizing the Baltimore and Washington Transit Company to extend its tracks to connect from Takoma with those of the Capital Traction Company on Fourteenth street extended, was amended by striking out the provision that eight tickets should be sold for 25 cents. It had been predicted that with the James amendments, providing for 4-cent fares, and eight tickets for 25 cents, remaining in the bill, the road would not be built. The bill is now in conference and is likely to become a law. No progress has thus far been made toward passing the union station bill, although Chairman Babcock says he will ask for a rule and try to secure the passage of the measure at some opportune time.

Alexandrians in Richmond.

Mr. Thomas B. Murphy, formerly of this city, but now of Alexandria, is here, and is registered at Murphy's. Mr. Murphy was a lumber merchant during his residence in Richmond, and was quite active in politics. Mr. Murphy now has extensive lumber plants in Westmoreland county and in Marietta, N. C., and is now on his way to the latter place. Holding his legal residence in Alexandria, he was asked his opinion as to the fight for the late Congressman Rixey's successor in the Eighth District. He said from what he could hear Judge Charles E. Nicol, of Prince William, had the inside track. Mr. Murphy expressed a very high regard for the ability of Judge Nicol. Said he was deservedly popular in the district.

Col. James R. Caton, of Alexandria, returned here Wednesday night from Louisa Courthouse, where he went yesterday to look after some legal matters. Colonel Caton said the congressional campaign in the Eighth district seemed to be getting pretty active, but that, so far as he could tell, sentiment had not sufficiently crystalized to enable one to make a fair estimate as to who would probably win. Asked if in the event Judge Nicol should capture the honor, he would be a candidate to succeed him as circuit judge, Col. Caton declared that he had no intention of going upon the bench. "As I announced before the death of Congressman Rixey," he went on, "I am a candidate for re-election to the House of Delegates from Alexandria city and county. That is all. Again, it seems to me that all this talk about a successor to Judge Nicol is premature. He has not resigned, and I do not believe much in people running for a place which is not vacant."—[Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Death of Mr. Green.

Mr. William McArthur Green, who had been critically ill at the Alexandria Hospital during the past week, died at that institution about 4:30 o'clock yesterday evening. The condition of Mr. Green caused considerable anxiety among his relatives and friends from the time he underwent an operation at the hospital, as it was evident that the chances for his recovery were few. His condition gradually grew worse until yesterday afternoon when it was realized that his death was inevitable. The direct cause of his death was appendicitis.

Mr. Green was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnston Green and a grandson of Maj. John W. Green. He was in his twenty-fifth year. Besides his parents and a brother and sister, he is survived by his wife, who was Miss Rose Emma M. Appich, a daughter of Mrs. Anna Appich, to whom he was married last November.

Mr. Green shortly after he left school entered the First National Bank, of which his father is assistant cashier, as a clerk, and remained with that institution until the organization of the Alexandria National Bank, about two years ago, when he resigned from the First National to become the general bookkeeper for the new concern.

The deceased was a member of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons and of Mount Vernon Royal Arch Chapter. He also held membership in the Old Dominion Boat Club and in the Bachelor Club.

Mr. Green was a deservedly popular young man, and all who knew him will regret to learn of his decease.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence, 711 King street. The interment will be made in Ivy Hill cemetery, and the services will be conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips. Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons will attend the funeral. The pallbearers will be Messrs. W. P. Taylor, R. F. Downham, J. Y. Williams, J. Wm. May, P. T. Harrington, E. W. Briggs, H. B. Caton and Robt Elliott.

The Market.

There was nothing new to report in the market this morning. The butchers and hucksters had average supplies of nearly everything necessary to stock a larder. The country market, however, was slimly attended, but few sellers or buyers being present. Prices had undergone no material change from those which prevailed last Saturday.

Mission at St. Mary's Church.

The first week of the mission at St. Mary's Church will be concluded tomorrow evening with appropriate ceremonies. The exercises during the past week have been largely attended and hundreds have received the sacraments, notwithstanding the bad weather. The mission will take an unusual turn next week. The instructions and lectures, though highly interesting and profitable to Catholics, will be directed mainly to explaining Catholic doctrines and customs to people who are not Catholics. An invitation is given to all who would like to be informed on these subjects, to attend the lectures and to put their written queries into the question box at the church door. There will be no abuse of other creeds and religious opinions. No acrimony or controversy is indulged in by the lecturers. Their sole purpose is to give a clear and candid explanation of Catholic teaching to fair minds and honest inquirers. "It is too true," said one of the priests, "that many of our people have erroneous conceptions of our religion, and as a natural result they look upon our church with feelings of aversion. They sometimes unconsciously repeat old calumnies against her and harbor prejudices of which they are unaware. Now an honest-minded man wants to know the facts; then he can form a more just appreciation of what others think and believe." The Catholics of Alexandria have been much benefited by the mission exercises, and they seem to have enjoyed the sermons preached by the mission priests. It is to be hoped that during the coming week others will derive benefit from them. All are welcome, and the seats are free.

I. O. O. F.

There was a largely attended and interesting meeting at Potomac Lodge, No. 38, I. O. O. F., last evening, the occasion being the conferring of the initiatory degree by Eastern Lodge, of Washington, which is composed of a fine body of men who conducted the work in a most exemplary manner. During the degree a sextette rendered several beautiful selections, two of the sextette being members of the Bishop celebrated quartette. A large number of members from other lodges of the order in Washington also accompanied Eastern Lodge, and during the evening short talks were made by Past Grand Masters E. W. Bradford, and J. I. Broun and others, of Washington, and by Rev. Edgar Carpenter of this city, a member of Potomac Lodge. The work was carried out in a highly creditable manner, and called for prolonged applause at its conclusion.

Charged with Selling Cocaine.

Officers Bell and Lyles last night arrested John Henry, William Miller and Mary Anderson, all colored, on suspicion of selling cocaine. Miller is known among his negro acquaintances as "Great Bear." The trio were brought before the Police Court this morning, but the evidence against the accused was not conclusive, and they were dismissed by Justice Caton. Henry in his statement said he wanted cocaine yesterday and proceeded to the neighborhood of the old local depot on Fayette street where he ascertained that the narcotic could be procured at a certain drug store in that section of the city. He went to the place and purchased a small package, paying 50 cents for the same. Knight produced the package in court. A warrant will be issued citing the druggist to appear and answer the charge made by the darkey.

He was relieved of the same and the books returned to a box from which they had been taken. Justice Caton announced his determination to send the accused to the Reform School.

Our Anniversary Sale Ends Today.

Each of the Sixty-nine departments in our establishment has contributed splendidly its part toward making this, our twenty-seventh, among the most satisfactorily successful anniversary occasions in our business experience. Seasonable, desirable goods for personal and home uses have been offered at especially low prices.

Bibles, Testaments, Prayer Books, and Hymnals At Half Publishers' Prices.

We have secured the "Travelers' Samples" of a large line of Bibles, Testaments, Prayer Books, and Hymnals, such as we have offered at this time for the past five years. They are technically "used," but as an actual fact have never been used, and are only slightly rubbbed from the wear of travel. The lot includes Bibles in every type of binding known to the trade—cloth, leather, levant Morocco, real seal—and in all varieties. Text only. Reference and Teachers'. The same is true of the Testaments, Psalms, and Apocrypha, as well as the Episcopal Prayer Books and Hymnals—there being samples of every kind, from the cheapest leather binding to the most elaborate sealskin.

And there is but one or two of a kind; never, in an instance, more than three. They are marked, as heretofore, for our Anniversary Sale at

One-half the Publishers' Prices.

Paroxysm of Laughter.

Eight hours of hearty laughter, with scarcely a minute's rest, nearly killed Miss Barbara Barr, a member of the Baptist Church choir at Florence, N. J. Miss Barr was visiting friends when some one made a witty remark which aroused the mirth of all those present. After a few minutes Miss Barr found it was impossible to stop laughing. Her laughter could be heard a block away. All kinds of plans to stop her were tried, but without success. Two doctors were summoned and the exhausted and semi-conscious girl was conveyed to her home. Until 10 o'clock at night she continued, and the physicians were unable to cope with the case. Miss Barr grew weaker every minute, but still laughing she sank into slumber and the spell gradually passed away. When she awoke the effect for some time rendered her helpless. She does not remember the joke.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure contained have had a warning printed on them against Opium and narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Endorsed by the County.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Wife-beater Whipped by Women.

A posse of women, escorted by a man, went to the home of Robert Hubbard, a notorious wife-beater, near South Pass City, Wyo., a few nights ago, called Hubbard out of the house, gave him twenty lashes across the bare back and commanded him to leave the community before sunrise. He left. The women themselves plied the whip. Hubbard pleaded piteously for mercy and promised never again to beat his wife if the women would let him off, but he was an old offender and the posse was determined to whip him. Mrs. Hubbard witnessd the chastisement of her husband and made no effort to interfere.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

Many sufferers from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Except that it is liquid it is in all respects like the healing, helpful, pain allaying Cream Balm that the public has been familiar with for years. No cocaine nor other dangerous drug in it. The soothing spray relieves at once and cure is certain. All druggists, 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.
